Foreword

One of the most colorful pages in our American History was written in the days of the gold-rush to California, by those adventurers who came to be known as the Forty-niners.

We, the seniors of this year's class, call ourselves the '49'ers also, and we too have been seeking treasure. Our quest has not been so picturesque as that of one hundred years ago, and our treasure is intangible, but it is none-the-less valuable. Our education may take us further than a bag of gold dust would; at least, that is our hope and the hope of our parents, our teachers, and our community, all of whom have joined forces to make our education possible.

Many of the nuggets we have acquired are ours because of the hard work, self-denial, and hours of practice which we have been willing to put into our quest. We are proud of our achievements and are happy to record them in this, our yearbook.

Annual Staff

Early last fall we, the class of '49, voted to carry on the tradition, started when we were freshmen, of publishing an annual.

The class elected Don Jackson and Alleen Lindquist as editors, and a very capable staff of seniors to assist them.

Bob Watts, the business manager, was responsible for the sales and finances of the TROJAN. The job of selling advertisements was handled especially well this year by Douglas Boerner and Bob Moffitt.

Snapshots, paste, imagination, and patience were the ingredients used by Joan Einspahr, who was the Layout Editor, in concocting the many pages of the book. Shirley Siebrecht was kept busy at her typewriter as the Copy Editor.

Two new staff positions were created this year—Photograph Editor, which was filled by Bill Rex, who saw that the annual was correctly illustrated; and Alumni Editor, in charge of the address lists, a job handled by Mary Bengford.

Miss Bruce, who was chosen sponsor, added all her knowledge and experience to our organization, and so now, with the cooperation of every member of Odebolt High School, we are happy to present the 1949 TROJAN. We hope it gives the reader as much enjoyment as it has afforded the staff.

ROSMER L. BRUCE

Dedication

We, the class of 1949, dedicate this, the '49 TROJAN, to Miss Rosmer Bruce, whose direction and sponsorship have helped us make our year book a success. Throughout our high school years, she has been one of our closest advisers and most sincere friends. At this time, Miss Bruce, we wish to express our gratitude and our best wishes for your future.

We seniors of '49 have proved ourselves to be of high quality even though we were not large in quantity. We have contributed to all of the extra curricular activities of O. H. S. In athletics the boys were letter winners in football, basketball, and track, while the girls excelled in softball and basketball. We were also represented in declamatory work. One member of our class was chosen to be on the WNAX Forum. We were outstanding in the music field—participants in marching band, concert band, glee clubs, mixed chorus, and many small ensembles. Seven of our group were soloists.

We were the second senior class to attend "Career Day" in Sac City, which was sponsored by the County Board of Education. There we listened to many interesting discussions and lectures on various careers. Our Skip Day, May 13, took us to Ames where we enjoyed High School Day, a part of the Veishea weekend festival.

This '49 TROJAN, to be issued on Class Day, May 20, has been our major project this year. Class Day closes our school days in Odebolt High, and as we leave, we carry with us many fond memories of our school days. To our underclassmen, we wish all success possible, and sincerely hope that they also store up many treasures during their days in O. H. S.

YEARBOOK SALES CARNIVAL

The sales campaign for the '49 TROJAN began with a loud noise on the afternoon of March 16, when the staff presented its magnificent stage extravaganza featuring an all-senior cast.

The loud noise was identified as the "Original Dixieland Band" featuring Don Konrady at the piano. After they had played the same piece four times, they were removed to make way for the second act—beautiful dancing girls, swaying rhythmically to the beat of native drums.

The third act was an interesting demonstration of "horse sense" by Roy Rogers and his horse (!) Trigger, who was very much up-to-date on school gossip.

Next came an astounding exhibition of brute strength by "Bongo, The World's Strongest Human." During this act "Bongo" lifted a 1,000 lb. weight with his bare teeth.

Following this were Cactus Bill and his Wild West act. While the equipment was being set up, Elviry favored the audience with several accordion solos accompanied by Cactus on his guitar. Bill then fascinated the crowd with his trick shooting and as a grand climax, Mr. Ogden volunteered to let the star shoot a balloon from his mouth at twenty paces. Mr. Ogden was only slightly injured.

After the smoke cleared, the entire cast came on stage for the Finale, and the curtain fell amid thunderous applause after the singing of "Little Brown Jug."

The entire school attended the program and paid the admission price of an annual subscription. Refreshments were sold by the staff, and by the end of the afternoon the TROJAN was well on its way to financial success.

Class Prophecy

Our forebears, those 'Forty-Niners of one hundred years ago were remarkably successful when we consider the crude tools they used and the hardships they encountered! In 1933 thousands of Americans oh'ed and ah'ed at the Century of Progress Exposition in Chicago. And the atom had not even disintegrated at that time! Who knows what wonders may become commonplace in the next few years? When the radio is a curio in a museum, and television palls, let's turn the knob of a Futur-o-scope, and see what is going to happen.

Just now I am thinking of my classmates, now, at the time of our graduation from Odebolt High School. How much worry and suspense we can save ourselves by that little invention. Ah, yes—the screen is becoming clear—I can see now that:

South America is raving over Bill Bird, who is touring that continent with his now-famous "Cactus Bill's Original Wild West Show." Bill is surrounded by beautiful señoritas and seems to be enjoying himself immensely. Also featured in the extravaganza is Alvera Lansink and her "Daughters of the Pioneers."

Now back to the United States. From Broadway comes word that Melvin (The Profile) Lindner has accepted the role of "Jess" in the stage portrayal of Glenn E. Bernhardt's latest novel, SUZETTE, FLAME OF NEW ORLEANS. Dramatic critic Fayette Murr predicts a record run for the production.

What's this? An advertisement! The James Klus Beverage Co. announces the perfection of their latest soft drink, "Chippy Cola" in the 18 oz. bottle with the bright red and green label.

Ah, here is a familiar face. Robert Hansen, New York fight promotor, is announcing that a match to decide the wrestling championship of the world will be held June 3 in Madison Square Garden. Challenger Don Konrady is very confident, and he looked good when he mangled two exhibition opponents yesterday for the benefit of the press.

Look at the smile on Shirley Siebrecht's face! She just won the international typnig contest with a record rate of 239¼ words per minute! (Using two typewriters, of course.) She is private secretary to Robert L. Watts, president of the Watts-All Drug Co.

We are now in a secluded laboratory in the Maine woods, where Dr. William F. Rex, formerly of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, is putting the finishing touches on his triple-atomic, 40 cylinder, 8 cycle, 3 valves-in-head, water cooled engine to propel his "Put-Put IV" race car in his third assault on the world land speed record. The machine will be driven by Carol Youngren, world famous speed driver and four-time Indianapolis winner.

From San Francisco comes word that Duane Einspahr, of Odebolt, Iowa, has won the title of the "World's Most Perfectly Developed Man" from Charles Atlas there this afternoon. The spectators were astounded when Einspahr raised the west end of Golden Gate Bridge three feet, seven inches with his lower lip.

While tuned to California, we intercept an interview with Col. Richard Morr, who reports exceptional accuracy with the new standard army rifle, the Breon 162, designed by Duane Breon, FBI ballistics expert of Washington, D. C.

As we return to New York City, we find several familiar names in the financial spotlight. Dorothy Albrecht has just bought out Billy Rose's Diamond Horseshoe for an undisclosed sum. Ferne Kessler, Wall Street stock broker, has won her $7,000,000 income tax suit against the federal government. She has secluded herself on her Long Island estate, and cannot be reached by reporters.

Mary Bengford has announced that she will retire from professional basketball this year. She has been the leading scorer for the past eleven years in the N.A.C.C. tournaments.

Word comes from Bombay, India, that Beverly Witt just passed that point on her third non-stop, round-the-world flight.

Now beautiful music is heard over the loud-speaker. It is the Philadelphia Symphony, giving its last concert under the direction of Alleen Lindquist, famed woman conductress, who has resigned her post to tour Africa to complete her analysis of primitive music. Miss Lindquist has chosen to conclude her career by directing the world premiere of Donald Jackson's "Concerto for Accordion and Tuning Fork." At the accordion will be Phyllis Schramm, European virtuoso. This work is beyond the ordinary because in its orchestration it calls for a large flock of Mallard ducks, (A Flat) and three rusty hinges. Music lovers will welcome this new composition with open arms and closed ears.

Smith's Laundry Soap is sponsoring a new daytime serial "Joan Faces Life," with Joan Einspahr in the title role.

Well, well, if we haven't tuned in to our favorite Iowa station, VQWA, in Odebolt. Maybe we can catch some local news. H'm, the Flogstad Baking Co. will be closed for a few days for the installation of Arda Lee's latest invention, the Doughnut-holer.

Clara Taphorn is surely proud of the silver cup she won milking cows at the State Fair. While she visited in Des Moines, she was entertained by Audrey Schultz, who is now manager of the Hotel Fort Des Moines.

Dallas Rohlf, owner of the former Adams Ranch, recently gave $2,000,000 to Iowa State College for the construction of the Corn Bowl. Athletic Director, Douglas Boerner, says plans are already being made for post-season games in this stadium, which is to be the largest in the midwest.

From Des Moines comes word that the Acme Book Co. is publishing a new set of primary readers written by the State Superintendent of Public Instruction, Jean Landgraf.

A former Iowan, Robert Moffitt, now owner of the Dublin Imitation Shamrock Manufacturing Co., of Dublin, Ireland, held the winning ticket in the Irish Sweepstakes for the third consecutive year. The luck of the Irish!

What's this? You underclassmen want to look into our Futur-o-scope? No, we wouldn't want to discourage you. After all, you knew that they had to close Odebolt High after we left, didn't you? We'll just turn it off now—you can try it next year.

Last Will and Testament

We, the Senior Class, of Odebolt High, do declare this to be our last Will and Testament.

- I, Fayette Murr, will my short walking distance from school to Ruth Treman.
- I, Melvin Lindner, will my manly muscles to Irvin Stehr.
- I, Shirley Siebrecht, will my ability to meet out of town men to Lois Rohlf.
- I, Arda Lee Flogstad, bequeath my position on various food committees for the last four years to Joyce Thielke.
- I, Dallas Rohlf, bequeath my quiet ways to George Hummel.
- I, Beverly Witt, bequeath my slim height to Tobianne Chaffee.
- I, Don Konrady, will my natural wave to Eldon Oldnettle.
- I, Duane Breon, will my private booth in Cobblestone to Jim Turner.
- I, Ferne Kessler, will my rosy cheeks and blushing ability to Joan McCorkindale.
- I, Duane Einspahr, will my leopard skin to Ronnie Salmonson.
- I, James Klus, bequeath my Pepsi Cola physique to Jim Brower.
- I, Audrey Schultz, bequeath my typing ability to Albert Veit.
- I, Clara Taphorn, will my ability to drive a Chevy to Verna Mae.
- I, Carol Youngren, bequeath my FFA interest to Don Gunderson.
- I, Phyllis Schramm, will my make-up slips to Coach Forsythe.
- I, Don Jackson, bequeath my ability in handling fantastic situations to Leonard Ziegmann.
- I, Alleen Lindquist, will my lost-weekends at Sioux City to Janet Sonksen.
- I, Doug Boerner, bequeath my smoothness to Roger Buxton.
- I, Robert Moffitt, bequeath my Irish to Richard Taylor.
- I, William Rex, will my atomic research in Chemistry to Gordon Friday.
- I, Joan Einspahr, will my ability to go steady to Marilyn Hoefling.
- I, Mary Bengford, will my Basketball ability to all green freshmen.
- I, Dick Morr, will my technique with out-of-town women to Paul Zadow.
- I, Glenn Bernhardt, will my worldly knowledge to John Witt.

- I, Dorothy Albrecht, will my out-of-town correspondence to Jane Teaquist.
- I, Bill Bird, will the subject of bees back to Mr. Shaw's Speech Class.

In Witness Whereof, we have hereunto set our hand this twentieth day of May, 1949.

THE FORTY-NINERS

The 49'ers

Four years ago together,
We Forty-Niners stood,
With excellent intentions
On some we have made good.

We studied subjects weighty
That never grew quite clear;
We faltered by the wayside,
But now at last we're here.

Although the tasks you set us
Were difficult to do,
And the scholarship requirements
Oft made us cross and blue,

Your ears were deaf to pleading;
We worked—and it did pay—
We achieved our noble purpose
As we attest today.

We'll take no tearful leaving,
We'll say no sad good-byes,
For, though our hearts are heavy,
The world before us lies.

Our school days have been happy,
But now 'tis time to go.
Behind are recollections;
Ahead our futures glow.

As children, tired of playing,
At sunset hurry home,
Back to Odebolt High School
We, too, some day shall come.

Yes, when across our pathway
Time's cool gray shadow falls,
You'll hear our weary footsteps
Returning to your halls.

To you, oh, Alma Mater,
Our loyalty we give;
This be your pride and honor:
YOU TAUGHT US HOW TO LIVE.

Class History

Thirteen years ago, we seniors, with bright expectant faces, presented ourselves at kindergarten to begin to learn our Readin', 'Ritin', and 'Rith-metic. Our teacher was Miss Kelch and her pupils were: Dorothy Albrecht, Glenn Bernhardt, Joan Coon, Clair Crowley, Joan Einspahr, James Franklin, Dick Gardner, Bob Hansen, Roger Hove, Don Jackson, Mary Lou Johnson, Dick Johnson, Donna Kallsen, James Klus, Don Konrady, Marilyn McBride, Dick Morr, Fayette Murr, Phyllis Pearson, Bill Rex, Roger Ross, Robert Smith, Bob Watts, Robert Hedberg, Robert Anderson, Ray Neville and George Stevens.

Moving on to first grade we gained Howard Gonnerman, Jack Gunderson, Don Sorenson, Duane Breon, Jerry Bruning and John Mayberry. Miss Aden was our teacher and how well we remember how we enjoyed school for now we got to go all day.

Then to second grade where Miss Aaron was to steer us for our next year. Here we were joined by Patsy Brand, Royce Hannel, Glenna Jean Morrow, Donna Jean McElravy, Tillman McFarland, Charles Neville and Paul Seiler.

Next across the hall to third grade with Miss Wallace as the teacher. That year our roll call included Beverly Witt and Douglas Glesmann. The highlight of this year was our postoffice which we made from orange crates or "what-have-you."

Miss Sutton was waiting for us in fourth grade. Not much excitement occurred during this year only that we had to duck once in a while so we wouldn't get hit by the blackboard erasers. However, Miss Sutton was a good teacher.

It was a happy day for us when we moved up to fifth grade for now we were upstairs with the "big kids." Miss Gordon was our teacher. We gained Arda Lee Flogstad, Douglas Boerner, Dallas Rohlf, and Duane Breon. Duane having moved away wasn't with us in fourth grade but joined us again in the latter part of fifth grade.

In sixth grade our teacher was Miss Zwiep. How well we all remember all the many themes we had to write!! This year we gained Leonard Neville, Bob Moffitt and Mary Buchanan.

Seventh grade was a very new experience for us, for now we were really "in things." Why, we even had periods to study our assignments. George Hummel was our only recruit that year.

Eighth grade was a hard one and most of us spent our time studying. Alleen Lindquist joined us in eighth grade.

Our freshman year really was a year full of parties. We especially remember the one Arda Lee had at Hallowe'en. Seems some of the older kids tried to crash it too, didn't they? That year we really grew, with twenty classmates added to our number: Gerald Bengford, Mary Bengford, Bill Bird, Robert Brown, Mathilda Bruns, Ramon Dinges, Duane Einspahr, Beverly Fries, Hugh Gore, Ferne Kessler, James Klus, Don Konrady, Glenn Konrady, Alvera Lansink, Roger Neville, Audrey Schultz, Shirley Siebrecht, Clara Taphorn, Miriam Stephens and Carol Youngren.

Now over to the other building. Wow! What fun. We even got to have some of our class parties with the older kids now. This year we gained Martin Stover, Dick Carlberg and Raymond Huisenga.

One of the highlights of our junior year was our class play, "Spring Fever." This year we added Melvin Lindner, Jean Landgraf and Phyllis Schramm.

And now we come to this our last year. We are proud of all that we have accomplished throughout our years of school and we hope that the Odebolt Community will be proud of us, as we finally reach our goal—our graduation.

JUNIOR CLASS

This year's Junior Class was well represented in everything from athletics to music—which, incidentally, is a long stretch. We, the class of '50, contributed our help in more ways than one. Many times, however, our willingness was not always helpful.

In football the Juniors had several boys who helped bring home the Maple Valley Conference Trophy. In Speech five of the six characters in the one act play were juniors and also many individual entries came from our class. The Trojan's 13 basketball victories were attained by the help of our representatives. Entries in the music contest went through to the last contest, some of them juniors.

Of course, we were well represented in another class of school activity too. I have often wondered what O. H. S. would be like without Howard Hoefling, George Hummel and Tom Bengford signing out to Coach every free period they have; not to see Charles Kruser and Doyle Hansen loafing in "Cardboard Hall;" not to hear Margie Bengford, Helen Landgraf and the entire shorthand class trying to translate the assignment for tomorrow at 4:00; not to see the F. F. A. boys slap Mr. Brown on the back when they pass him in the halls; not to see Jim Barkley, Ronald Rex and Jim Turner talking about what they did last night and what they are going to do tomorrow.

As you can readily see, as classes go, we are top notch. The Sophomores of this year will have to really go to do all the things the class of '50 did this year.

Our class officers were:

First Semester: President, James Barkley; Vice-President, Ruth Kessler; Secretary-Treasurer, Margaret Bengford.

SOPHOMORE CLASS

This year we Sophomores are the largest class in high school. Our number is forty. We were led by Donnie Gunderson, Barbara Boyd and Leonard Ziegmann during the first semester; the second semester by Lois Rohlf, Howard Einspahr and Jim Brower. Miss Bliss is our class sponsor.

Members of our class have done well in band, vocal music and sports. We are anxious to prove we can do better during our Junior year.

We all enjoyed our Sophomore year and are looking forward to our remaining years at O. H. S.

FRESHMEN CLASS

We, the class of '52, have very ably taken part in all school activities. Even though we are small we are working very hard to be an excellent group.

The class officers for the first semester were: President, Janet Ogden; Vice-President, Ruth Krusenstjerna; Secretary, Rollin Linman; Treasurer, Wally Duffy; Reporter, Joan McCorkindale.

The class officers for the second semester were: President, Carol Schaefer; Vice-President, Joe Kipp; Secretary, Donald Gunderson; Treasurer, Margaret Zimmerman; Reporter, Jerry Reynolds.

We are looking forward to becoming Sophomores and are anxious to show what we can do when we get into Senior High.

FOOTBALL - 1948

The 1948 Trojans, although they lost four of their nine games, were able to bring home to Odebolt the Maple Valley Conference Championship Trophy.

As in the past three years, the conference title had to be decided in the annual grid feud between Odebolt and Holstein in the last game of the season.

Both teams entered the Armistice clash with perfect records. The ranks of the Trojans were depleted with injuries and because of this they were placed in the role of the underdog. Seven Odebolt lettermen were out of the Holstein fray due to injuries. However, the Trojan reserves, mostly sophomores, came through in splendid fashion for this critical contest, and Odebolt not only won the trophy but also showed much promise for a good season in '49.

This year's grid activities opened with a loop game at Correctionville. The local eleven, fielding an inexperienced line and two new backfield members, had difficulty in getting started, and by half-time held only a 7 to 0 advantage. In the second half the Trojans settled down to football and the game ended 33 to 0.

The Purple and Gold eleven ran into tougher competition in their opening home game against Kingsley, and had to be content with a 19 to 7 win. They won their third straight conference game by downing Moville 39 to 13. Odebolt jumped to a 33-0 first half time lead in this tilt and coasted through on their reserve strength in the last half.

The Trojans lost their first game of the season when they suffered a 13 to 0 defeat at the hands of the Alta Cyclones. Alta, with a large, experienced team, had to go out all the way for the victory.

The following Friday the Trojans ran up against a tough Manilla eleven and lost their first Homecoming game in five years when the visitors pushed across a touchdown in the last few minutes to win 13 to 7.

Sac City, enjoying one of their best grid seasons in years, tried to pour it on the Trojans to make up for the past Indian defeats, but could do no better than a 20 to 6 win. This was Sac City's Homecoming game and the Indians jumped to a 13 to 0 halftime lead. However, Odebolt came back in the last half and played their county rivals on even terms.

CHEERLEADERS

The last home game of the season for the local eleven was played in the rain and mud against a mediocre Wall Lake eleven. The Trojans captured this one by a 27 to 0 margin.

The contest with Ida Grove was also played in rain and mud. Ida Grove held a 13 to 0 lead in the first half but the Trojans marched through them in the third quarter to tie up the game. With three minutes to go, Ida Grove crossed the goal line to hand the Trojans their fourth defeat of the season 19 to 13.

Not too much had been expected of this year's eleven as nine of last year's starters had been lost through graduation. The line on the '48 Trojan team was made up entirely of inexperienced players and only Bob Hansen and George Hummel had had regular backfield experience.

Dick Morr, Doug Boerner and Howard Hoefling, along with Hansen and Hummel, gave the Trojans a potent and speedy backfield. Morr and Hansen were the halfbacks, Hummel was the full-back, while Hoefling and Boerner shared the quarterbacking job. On the line, Duane Breon and Tom Bengford were the ends, Duane Einspahr and Don Dreesen were the starting tackles, Jim Hess and Bob Moffitt held down the guard posts, and Jim Barkley was the center.

Letters were also won by Dallas Rohlf, Carol Youngren, Melvin Lindner, Richard Gardner, Jack Gunderson, Tom Reynolds, Doyle Hansen, Jim Brower and Jim Morr.

Other squad members were Don Konrady, Don Jackson, Jim Turner, Charles Gunderson, Ronald Rex, Don Sorensen, Charles Krusenstjerna, Albert Veit, Howard Einspahr, Gordon Friday, Don Gunderson, Dick Swanson, Kenneth Fertig, Neil Schroeder, Cletus Wingert, Richard Taylor, La-Vern Haradon and Sidney Huff.

Bill Rex and Stanley Vernia were the managers of the 1948 Trojans.

BOYS' BASKETBALL

The 1948-49 basketball team compiled one of its best records in the cage history of O. H. S. The season's record was 13 wins against 6 losses.

According to pre-season dope, the Trojans were not expected to have much for the 1948-49 season. Three regulars were lost from last year's squad, leaving only Bob Hansen, center, and Jim Brower, forward, available for this season. Hansen and Brower were the Trojans' leading scorers.

Don Jackson, playing his first year of varsity ball, came through in fine fashion as a center on offensive and a guard on defensive work. His fight and excellent ability were important factors in the Trojans' 13 victories.

George Hummel, junior, was the defensive standout, and often came through in a pinch for offensive help. Hummel played a Trojan guard position.

Dick Gardner and Doug Boerner shared the remaining forward spot with Gardner pulling out in front toward the end of the season.

Only five seniors will be lost this year from the squad of 19. Outstanding reserves were James Barkley, Tom Reynolds, Doyle Hansen (who left due to an injury in mid-season), Bob Watts, Charles Krusenstjerna, and Tom Bengford.

This year's sophomores led by veteran Jim Brower, show promise for next year's season. They include: Dick Swanson, Don Gunderson, Kenneth Fertig, Sidney Huff, Gordon Friday, and Jack Nuetzman.

The Trojans lost only one home game this year and that was to the strong Alta five.

Lettermen for this season were as follows: Seniors—Bob Hansen, Don Jackson, Doug Boerner, Bob Watts; Juniors—Dick Gardner, George Hummel, Jim Barkley, and Ronald Rex, the basketball manager.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

The Trojanettes did not enjoy a successful season as far as wins and losses were concerned but they played much better than in previous years. The competition this year was very stiff. Several games were lost by a small margin.

No doubt everyone will agree that the girls played their best game against Nemaha December 21, here in the Odebolt gym.

Ruth Kessler was the leading scorer with 214 points for the season.

Shirley Siebrecht was elected honorary captain. Shirley also won the sectional free throw contest at Galva with a score of 20 good ones out of 25 trials.

With 5 letter winners returning to next year's squad, in addition to several promising sophomores and freshmen, the Trojanettes should provide plenty of opposition in 1949-1950 for the other teams in this territory.

TRACK

The Trojans' track team furnished perhaps the biggest surprise of the school year by deserving a ranking as the top "Class B" squad in Northwest Iowa. The Purple and Gold thinclads upset the dope bucket in the first outdoor meet of the year by winning the team trophy of the Holstein Relays. And to prove that this was no mere accident the same group brought home the team trophy from the Alta Relays.

The scores of the leading contenders in the Holstein Relays were as follows: Odebolt, 28; Aurelia, 23; Milford, 20; Albert City, 20; and Holstein 14½. In the Alta Relays the first five scored as follows: Odebolt, 47; Aurelia, 41; Holstein, 40; Alta, 38; and Albert City, 24.

One of the highlights of the season was Odebolt's duel with Holstein for the supremacy of the Maple Valley Conference. In this meet, the Trojans came from behind in the last few events to defeat Holstein 102 to 92 11/12. Thus, the Trojans claimed the Conference track title, along with their football title.

The Trojans also placed third in the Sac City Invitational meet. A medley relay team composed of Kenneth Fertig, Tom Reynolds, Don Sorensen, and Bob Hansen was our only entry in the Sioux City Relays. It finished second.

In the District meet at Cherokee, on May 6, the Trojans again came out on top in the team standings. Fourteen of the Trojans out of the sixteen entered qualified for the State Finals at Ames, May 21. Qualifying for the State Finals in the individual events were Bob Hansen, 880; Don Konrady, 100 yard dash; Tom Reynolds, low hurdles; and George Hummel, football throw and discus. Four of Odebolt's five relay teams will be entered in the State Meet. Only the 880 relay team failed to qualify.

The important factor in the success of the track team was the balance in the running events. This was especially true in the relays. The relay teams placed in every meet they were entered, and the lowest position any one of the relay quartets finished was a fourth place for the 440 at the Sac City Invitational meet.

Outstanding performers were Bob Hansen, who won the State Indoor title in the 880 yard run; Don Konrady, Carol Youngren, Tom Reynolds, Don Sorensen, Melvin Lindner, and Charles Krusenstjerna in the sprints; Tom Reynolds and Bill Bird, hurdles; Don Jackson, Jim Turner, Kenneth Fertig, Sidney Nelson, Howard Hoefling and Dallas Rohlf in the middle distance events; George Hummel, football throw and discus; Jim Barkley and Duane Einspahr, shot put; Bob Hansen, broad jump, and Jim Brower, high jump.

INSTRUMENTAL MUSIC

The Marching band this year was a good sized group of small musicians who did a wonderful job of marching and playing. It took some time for Mr. Allen to get all the little people started off on their left feet but after that was accomplished, the band was as good as it had ever been. The Marching band took two trips—one to Ida Grove, and one to Sac City. All who saw the Marching band perform complimented them.

Jane Teaquist, the efficient drum major, was responsible for getting the band lined up properly in its various formations. The Majorettes, Jo Bye, Mary Bengford, and Joan Wilken turned in performances which complemented that of the musicians. Marching band has been a wonderful experience for its entire personnel. Odebolt High School pupils are fortunate to be able to participate in such an activity.

Concert band had its beginning the day Marching band was over. The band opened up the new band room in the annex. Several programs were given this year—a Christmas concert and a pre-contest concert. The band then started preparing for contest. Our band moved up through the contests, one step at a time, until it finally received the highest award given in the state—a division I⁺ rating at Spencer on April 30.

The small groups which also received division I rating at Spencer and went on to the State Contest at Perry, May 7, are: Woodwind Quartet, Woodwind Quintet, Woodwind Trio, B $\flat$ Clarinet Quartet, Brass Quartet, and Drum Ensemble.

Soloists who appeared at Perry are Don Jackson, Doyle Hansen, James Turner, Charles Krusenstjerna, John Witt, Kenneth Fertig.

All people who appeared at State Contest in Perry received a II rating, which is a good rating considering the competition of the AA and A schools. The school is rightfully proud of its fine Band.

VOCAL MUSIC

The vocal music department has aimed to give all students the opportunity to learn to appreciate and to love music. All grade students must attend a vocal class daily and other interests are provided for high school pupils—as the mixed chorus, girls' glee club, and boys' glee club. We have organized, also, small groups consisting of select voices. These groups include the girls' trio, girls' sextet, mixed quartet, and boys' quartet.

And, yes, we have many fine soloists of whom we are extremely proud.

Seniors who will be leaving this field of learning are Joan Einspahr, Alleen Lindquist, Mary Bengford, Arda Lee Flogstad, Beverly Witt, Jean Landgraf, Bob Moffitt, Bob Hansen, and Don Jackson.

The following received a division I rating at district contest at Odebolt: Janet Sonksen, mezzo soprano solo; Girls' Trio, Alleen Lindquist, Joan Einspahr and Joan Kies; Girls' Sextet, Nancy Witt, Helen Reuber, Margaret Bengford, Janet Sonksen, Jean Landgraf, and Velma Paul; Baritone solo, Bob Moffitt; Bass solo, Bob Hansen.

The district contest for large groups was held at Sac City, where the Girl's glee club, accompanied by Alleen Lindquist, was given a I rating. The same group received a I rating at the state contest for large groups held at Spencer on April 28-30. Bob Moffitt and Bob Hansen both won I ratings on their vocal solos at Spencer and went on to the state contest for soloists and small groups at Perry on May 7, where Bob Moffitt was given a II and Bob Hansen a III rating.

ALL-CHURCH CAROLING PARTY

Something new was tried in Odebolt during the Christmas Season last year, and was carried through very successfully. For the first time in the history of Odebolt, the young people from all the churches observed the Christmas spirit together; and that was by combining and blending their voices in a mass choir. Over 140 voices from every faith and denomination participated in this event which took place in the Presbyterian Church. The choir, under the direction of Mrs. Mabel Schoeberl and accompanied by Mrs. Dorothy Purdy, sang a program of Christmas carols and the entire concert was broadcast over the towers of the Presbyterian Church.

Immediately after the program was over the young people went on a sleigh ride. Even Mother Nature seemed to be in favor of this event, for a light snow was falling as the bobsleds, pulled by jeeps, tractors, and trucks, pulled out with their loads of boys and girls. The carolers sang at the homes of several individuals who were shut-ins.

Upon returning from the bobsled ride everyone went to the Presbyterian Church basement where ladies from the different churches had prepared a chili supper for the hungry boys and girls.

This event demonstrated the real Christmas spirit and it is hoped that next year we shall have the "Second Annual All-Church Caroling Party."

THE SCHOOL CHRONICLE

Every Friday, sixth period, we, the Senior Stenography class, edit the School Chronicle for the following week. It consists of news from the Kindergarten to the Twelfth grade. We elected our Editor last spring, while the rest of us chose our own assignments, all working under the able direction of Miss Bruce.

We have found this work very interesting and have enjoyed doing it. We hope you also have enjoyed reading our paper.

We wish to thank The Odebolt Chronicle for their cooperation with us. We hope the future staffs of the School Chronicle will profit from this experience as we have.

SPEECH

Interest was high in speech this school year, with seventeen contestants entered in the elimination contest.

At the home contest held on February 7, 1949, those entered in Oratorical were James Barkley, Charles Krusenstjerna, and John Witt; Dramatic—Jean Landgraf, Velma Paul, Helen Reuber, Lois Rohlf, and Lois Schaefer; Humorous—Mary Bird, Carol Schaefer, Joan Taphorn, and Joan Wilken; Interpretative Reading—Alleen Lindquist, Helen Reuber, and Lois Schaefer; Original Oratory—Doyle Hansen; Radio Speaking—James Barkley and Joan Wilken; One-Act Play—Doyle Hansen, Howard Hoefling, Jane Tequist, Lois Schaefer, Melvin Lindner, and James Barkley; Extemporaneous Speaking—Doyle Hansen.

The sub-district contest was held at Hayes Consolidated, the pre-district at Ida Grove, and the district contest at Estherville. At the district contest the play received a two rating, as did Velma Paul with her dramatic selection, and Doyle Hansen in Extemporaneous Speaking. Jim Barkley was awarded a one rating in the Oratorical Division. Jim won the right to represent Odebolt in the state final contest at Boone which was held April 23, 1949. He won a one rating in his oratorical selection "Our Beachheads of the Future."

Thank you, Mr. Shaw, for your interest and help. Here's wishing success for future declamatory contests in which OHS participates. Best of luck!

WNAX FORUM

The above students participated in the High School Forum Series which was sponsored by WNAX last fall. This is the third year that the Sioux City radio station has conducted such a program, and the third year that Odebolt has been among the participating schools. Two years ago, twelve schools were included in the plan, and the programs proved so popular that the number of schools was increased to twenty this year. The program is recorded on a wire recorder in the school auditorium by WNAX technicians, and is broadcast on Tuesday evenings from WNAX, one school each week for twenty weeks during the fall and winter. This year our topic for discussion, which was chosen by vote of all pupils in the school, was "Is Permanent Peace a Possibility?" It was of timely interest to everyone; and it required much study and concentrated thought on the part of the four students selected to represent the school. Lois chose the negative side of the discussion, while Fayette, Jim, and Doyle attacked the topic from the affirmative angle.

The panel, accompanied by Mr. Shaw, speech director, were guests of WNAX in Sioux City on April 19, where they met with the speakers from the other nineteen participating schools. At this time the common subject, "Are We Americans Losing Our Basic Freedoms?" was assigned, and each group prepared a speech which was given later in the day in competition by one speaker from each school. Jim Barkley represented Odebolt and he went through to the semi-final contest, which was broadcast that evening. Bill Kruse of East High, Sioux City, was chosen by the judges as the best speaker. His award is a trip to Washington, D. C.

On April 20, Jim Barkley appeared on a panel arranged by Station KAYL of Storm Lake. Eight schools in this vicinity were represented by students who spoke on "Zeal for Democracy."

JUNIOR CLASS PLAY

The Junior Class, under the direction of Mr. F. J. Shaw, presented their annual play Thursday and Friday, November 18 and 19, 1948. The comedy, "Headed for Eden" by Sidney Duvall, was presented by two different casts on successive evenings.

SENIOR CLASS PLAY

"We Shook the Family Tree" is a new comedy from the novel of the same name by Hildegarde Dolson. It is a three-act play, full of adventures and escapades that keep the family tree aquiver. Young Hildegarde is desperately anxious to attract the attention of some eligible senior, for it's almost Saturday night, and no boy has even hinted that he'd like to take her to the big dance. She wins the school debate with an impassioned plea against drinking, but instead of attracting boys with her brains, she only convinces everyone that her father must be a terrible drunkard. Friends call to suggest Alcoholics Anonymous. Despite Mother's horror at these growing wild stories about her abstemious husband, she's moved by Hildegarde's plight, and she takes action. Mother knows a nice boy, and she's sure he'd love to go with Hildegarde. She calls his mother. Hildegarde, not knowing who he may be, brags to the other girls about her date—only to learn that the boy is Freddie—the one boy in school whose old-fashioned parents force him to wear knickers! Hildegarde pleads with her father to let her break the date, but Father is mad, for everyone is convinced now that he's a great drinker. Furthermore, Freddie is the son of Father's boss. Father, in danger of losing his job at the bank because of all the talk Hildegarde has started, invites his boss out to the house to see for himself how sane and sensible his family really is. Hildegarde, her face smeared with beauty clay, dashes into the room screaming that her brother has put a large live bass in the bathtub. The boss is stunned, all the more so when his son, Freddie, bursts in wearing long pants which he had hooked from Hildegarde's brother. It all looks like the end of everything, and they all turn on Hildegarde, for, one way or another, she's at the bottom of every single disaster. Finally, however, by overthrowing the domination of his mother, Freddie overcomes his inferiority complex and, resplendent in a new suit—with long pants—he escorts Hildegarde to the long awaited prom.

FUTURE FARMERS OF AMERICA

Several different phases of Agriculture were studied and carried on in the Vocational Agriculture Classes and F.F.A. during the year to make the experiences of the boys varied and interesting.

In August, our team won fifth place in a county livestock judging contest for 4-H clubs and F.F.A. chapters; in September, they placed ninth out of twenty-two teams in a similar contest at the Clay County Fair at Spencer; and in April, at a four-state contest held at Sioux City, they ranked eighth out of thirty-nine groups, and second among Iowa teams. Five of the group attended and enjoyed the State Fair at Des Moines; four went to Waterloo, to the Dairy Cattle Congress; and five attended the F.F.A. leadership conference held at Laurens.

During the winter months the F.F.A. boys played a schedule of nine first team and seven second team basketball games. The first team won seven and lost two; the second team won four and lost three.

On April 2, the F.F.A. chapter took part in the Northwest Iowa District Contest held at Pocahontas. Lawrence Hoefling won a bronze award in the F.F.A. quiz; Donald Peterson was awarded an honorable mention in the Public Speaking event; and the Parliamentary Procedure team composed of Duane Einspahr, Dallas Rohlf, Carol Youngren, Royce Hannel, and Jack Gunderson also took an honorable mention.

Duane Einspahr and Royce Hannel were selected as official delegates to the State F.F.A. convention held at Cedar Rapids April 21-23. Dallas Rohlf and Carol Youngren, nominated for the degree of Iowa Farmers also attended, along with Gerald Huldeen and Daryl Stehr, who played in the State Band, and Irvin Stehr, who sang in the State Chorus.

The highlight of the school year was reached on April 12, with the holding of the Annual Parent-Son dinner. Dallas Rohlf served as toastmaster for this event, with a large majority of the boys and their parents attending. George Dresselhuis was initiated as an honorary chapter farmer during the evening program.

Besides these varied activities, the chapter sold refreshments at several of the home basketball games, tested seed for the farmers of the community, sold license plate signs, and helped in the finance drive to raise money for the Odebolt Community Fair. A pigeon hunt was held during the winter months and a couple of pruning demonstrations were held.

Officers for the 1948-49 year were: Dallas Rohlf, president; Carol Youngren, vice-president; Royce Hannel, secretary; Jack Gunderson, treasurer; and Charles Gunderson, reporter. The chapter had 32 members, 26 of them high school students and 6 out-of-school youth. In addition to those in the picture, there were Irvin Stehr and Melvin Determann who were enrolled in the school; and Austin Babcock, James Scott, Robert Schwaller, Clyde Meyer, Ronald Bloom, and Daryl Stehr, who have graduated.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

We, the STAFF of the '49 TROJAN, wish to express our sincere appreciation to all those people who have helped us in the preparation of our yearbook. Our thanks go to Mr. Paul Wagner, who was always willing to come up to take a picture of us; to Coach Forsythe, our Senior Class sponsor; to Miss Bruce, sponsor of the yearbook; to all of the faculty who have cooperated with us so unselfishly; to Mary Bird for her pen and ink drawing; to the students who contributed the snapshots; and to the business men whose generous support has made our project possible.

Alumni Section

Our Alumni list has been corrected in accordance with the data which we have been able to secure. We know that many more merit recognition in our Alumni Who's Who, but our space is limited, and, in many cases, our information is scanty. We hope that, by beginning in a small way as we have done, we may encourage other alumni to tell us of themselves and their accomplishments.
